

Let go....

Sometimes in life you have to let go of the people you love ... Simply because you know you can't be together...

*You need to let go of all the teddy bear hugs.... You need to let go of all the lovely kisses..... You need to let go of your body talking with theirs.... You need to let go of all the beautiful moments which will never come back... You need to let go of the way you spoke to each other..... You need to let go of the butterflies you used to feel..... Maybe you're letting go something which was deeply carved into your soul
.....*

*Now even after knowing that we can't be together..... I still want those tight hugs... I want to travel places with you... I want to sit by the sea shore with you and just start at the waves and talk nothing ... I want to climb mountains with you.... I want to run on roads with you... I want to hold hands with you and walk by the lake.... I want to see everything in this world with you...
Coz this is how I feel about you right now..... Before this feeling fades away I wanted to capture it...
Still I know few things and better unsaid...*
